LEGION GROUP SUBMITS PLAN FOR BEER SALE

Commission Requests Delegates at Convention To Act on Modification.

REPORT IS FILED TODAY

Based on Belief Employment Would Be Increased by Legalized Brewing.

By The Associated Press
DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 23.—The American Legion unemployment commission today recommended that the legion national convention give consideration to modification of the prohibition act to legalize beer.

The recommendation made by the commission said:

"Your national employment commission feels it to be the duty of the commission to present the following to the attention of this convention:

"That when it shall properly come before the convention, due consideration be given to modification of the Volstead act to legalize real beer without conflict with the constitution of the United States in the interest of furnishing added employment. Your commission believes that hundreds of thousands of jobs may be created through such action."

Greeted with Cheers

The commission's declaration on beer was received with a cheering demonstration. It was read by Howard F. Savage of Chicago, past national commander of the Legion and chairman of the unemployment commission.

No action was taken on the brief report on beer which was presented separately from the main body of the commission's report. Chairman Savage pointed out that the commission was merely making its recommendation that the legion give consideration to the beer proposal when it comes before the convention through regular channels.

The main body of the commission's report reviewed the work of the legion's Washington conference on unemployment and made recommendations that the convention give consideration to advocacy of further restriction of immigration and to the promotion of public works as a means of unemployment relief. The commission also recommended that consideration be given by employers and workers the five-day week and the six hour day.

Most Next in Portland

The legion voted today to hold its 1932 national convention in Portland, Oregon. No other invitation was received by the convention.

The convention settled down to business today with the controversial issues of prohibition and bonus payments in the foreground. The bonus question was pushed into prominence last night by a

GOVERNOR TO NAME NEW PROBATE JUDGE

Appointment To Be Made While Bostwick Prepares for Appeal.

By United Press
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 23.—Gov. Whitcomb today announced the appointment of Homer Z. Bostwick as judge of the probate court of Franklin county.

Meanwhile, attorneys for Bostwick were preparing an appeal to the appellate court seeking to reverse the judgment of a special court of three non-resident judges which removed him from office yesterday.

Bostwick has 30 days in which to file his appeal from the decision of the special court which in ordering his removal from office immediately found him guilty of incompetency in office and immorality.

As much as the special court consisting of Judge Walter D. Jones of Miami county, Judge James C. Ogilvie of Carroll county and Judge William P. Vaughan of Morrow county, declared the office of probate judge vacant, the governor must name a successor.

Dana Reynolds, presiding judge of the common pleas court of Franklin county, said the work of the probate judge will be taken over by one of the seven common pleas court judges while Governor Whitcomb deliberates on Bostwick's successor.

The three judges censured Bostwick for his association with Mrs. Opel Walker Endersby, 24. They denounced as a "disgrace" the action of Judge Bostwick and his friend, John H. Unoper, an attorney, in forcing Mrs. Endersby, in the office of Franklin probate attorney, to give a ring back to Judge Bostwick under the threat that she would be sent to the Ohio reformatory on a "fifty charge."

SCIENCE SURVEY ANNOUNCED

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 23.—A survey of water resources in the state will be conducted by the Ohio State geological survey, announced today by the state geologist, Dr. J. W. Gair.

The survey will be conducted by a party of geologists and engineers, and will cover the entire state. The party will be headed by Dr. Gair, and will include several of the state's leading geologists and engineers.

FEAR RUSSIAN INTERVENTION

Japan Averts Immediate Entry of Third Power, but Threat Still Present.

REFUSES AID OF LEAGUE

Nippon Leaders Decline Outside Arbitration; Japs Fleo Homes in China.

By The Associated Press
SHANGHAI, Sept. 23.—Immediate danger of Russia being drawn into the Sino-Japanese imbroglio apparently was averted today by the decision of the Japanese military not to occupy Harbin.

Tokyo seemingly has determined to keep the Sino-Japanese crisis strictly an issue between China and Japan, excluding all intervention, whether by Russia, the League of Nations or the Kellogg anti-war pact signatories.

Although the Japanese chief of staff in Manchuria had ordered troops to move into Harbin to protect the Japanese community there, the cabinet at Tokyo evidently decided it was not worth while risking Russian intervention and ordered Changchun made the northern limit of the occupied zone.

Residents Withdraw

A majority of Japanese residents of Harbin, inland Manchurian metropolis, are expected to withdraw to safer places within the Japanese military cordon.

Although the Chinese press was filled with wild rumors of Russian war preparations shore the Siberian border, confirmation was lacking. Harbin's Russian was limited heretofore to a mild protest against the Japanese occupation of the Chinese eastern railway station at Kwangchowshang, which later was evacuated. The Chinese eastern railway is jointly operated by Russia and China.

Japan will not agree to intervention either by the League of Nations or the Kellogg pact signatories. But while Japan at least the civilian element of her government is doing her utmost to limit the scope of the present emergency, Grave Doubts have arisen in the minds of Japanese residents of China as to whether it will be possible to hold within bounds the wave of bitterness against Japan that is sweeping China. Many Japanese communities in many Chinese cities are moving to bodies to places of safety.

Evacuation Under Way

About 100 persons, comprising the entire Japanese population, moved from Hangchow to Shanghai today and the evacuation of Nanking, the Nationalist capital, also was begun. Women and children entrained from the capital for Shanghai while the rest of the Japanese community, totalling about 70 persons, concentrated on the waterfront, off which lay a Japanese cruiser.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 23.—Instead of voluntarily evacuating women suspected by Major Joseph P. Lamb, vice general of the Cleveland Catholic League, and others of being in the office of Franklin probate attorney, to give a ring back to Judge Bostwick under the threat that she would be sent to the Ohio reformatory on a "fifty charge."

"AKRON" SET FOR FLIGHT

MARNES GIVE FAREWELL FOR GEN. BUTLER

Spectacular Program Staged To Mark Close of Colorful Career.

OFFICIAL DUTIES ENDED

In One Week Becomes Civilian First Time Since Boyhood.

By The Associated Press
QUANTICO, Va., Sept. 23.—As a spectator at the last charge he will remember, Major Smedley D. Butler today came to the end of his official duties with the marine.

It was his farewell party, so he was designated to sit on the sidelines as 2,000 men and officers whom he has led staged a spectacular attack on the marine corps base here.

Their charge, reminiscent of many he has led in foreign lands, marked the end of Butler's 33 years of colorful service as a soldier of the sea. One week from tomorrow he becomes a civilian for the first time since he was a boy, but his duties ended today.

Machine Work Ended

Until October 1 he has nothing to do, but pack his house furnishings preparatory to moving to his new home at Newtown Square in Pennsylvania.

There he will carry with him a prediction of Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania, that more will be heard from him "soon."

Speaking last night a smother given by the marines in honor of their retiring commander, Pinchot described him as "the greatest leader and builder of morale in the United States today," and added: "We are all going to hear more from General Butler soon."

With his voice shaking, Butler yesterday told the men who participated in a final dress parade for him, they had given him "something to remember the rest of his life."

Reviewers Praise

The parade was a formal affair made less so by Butler's spontaneous informality. Standing arm in arm with Mrs. Butler the general returned the salutes of his fellow officers. The parade had not progressed far, however, before he was shouting to straighten struggling lines which passed in front of him.

No sooner had the parade passed than Butler bounded down off the stand, lighted a cigar and directed the formation of groups of men into a mass chorus.

The first song was a trifle low. The leader spurred the men to sing with "more tempo" and strength. "Tempo, hell! Just sing!" said Butler.

They did.

MADMAN SOUGHT AS SLAYER OF COLLINGS

District Attorney Clears Yachtman's Wife of Responsibility for Death.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Convinced that Mrs. Benjamin P. Collings is "relieved of all culpability" for her husband's strange death in Long Island Sound, District Attorney Alexander E. Blue of Suffolk county today pressed search for a madman, who he believes, murdered the Stamford, Conn., seagunner.

Detectives and New York police were watching for a man, whose name, Mr. Blue said, was known. This man, described as a recently paroled lunatic, was missing from his usual haunts.

Three certain youths also were sought on the possibility that one might be the youth who boarded the cruiser Penguin with an older man and attacked Mr. Collings after throwing her husband into the sound.

Blue's announcement that Mrs. Collings was above suspicion came as a surprise to his staff of detectives. Previously he had expressed doubts about her story.

District Attorney Edwin R. Nevers of Nassau county, who filed a charge of the strangulation, believing it had occurred in his county, maintained that the plot that Mrs. Collings story was true.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 23.—The state's attorney today announced that the execution of John J. Search for Missing Fliers Is Renewed in North Sea

By The Associated Press
LONDON, Sept. 23.—Hope that Parker D. Cramer, American aviator, who was last seen on a flight from Detroit to Copenhagen, remains alive lingered today.

On the request of the American embassy, the British Broadcasting company appealed to ships in the North Sea and residents of the barren Orkney and Shetland Islands to keep a sharp watch for Cramer and his radio operator, Oliver Paquette.

The radio message said the wreckage of Cramer's plane, recently salvaged by the British trawler Lord Trent, indicated the possibility that the men might have taken refuge on one of the uninhabited islands.

The Daily Mail pointed out that what was taken for a flying suit was found in the cockpit of the plane by the master of the Lord Trent, demonstrating to the newspaper that the pilot might have been able to discard the suit and leave the machine before it crashed.

The embassy acted on orders from Washington in response to a plea of William M. Cramer, brother of Parker, who believes that the fliers may be marooned on a remote island and will remain there unless rescued. The state department asked the embassy whether a search of the Orkneys by airplanes would be feasible and what the cost would be.

CHURCH LIKELY TO EXPRESS DRY STAND

Episcopalian Convention Expected To Vote on Proposal To Modify Law.

By The Associated Press
DENVER, Colo., Sept. 23.—The general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church may have an opportunity to express itself on a proposal calling for the modification of the prohibition laws to allow the manufacture and sale of beer.

Convention observers said that the resolution likely would originate in the committee of 21, composed of seven bishops, seven priests and seven laymen, named to consider world problems. The committee has before it a resolution presented from the diocese of central New York asking congress to authorize a national referendum on prohibition. It was presented in the house of deputies several days ago and referred to the committee without debate.

Hearings before the committee advertised as public in announcements to the house of bishops and house of deputies yesterday, began today with a session closed to the press. Bishop Santa H. Freeman of Washington, D. C., the chairman, said the meetings were open to delegates, but not to the general public.

MT. GILEAD, Sept. 23.—C. Romans, former secretary and treasurer of the Morrow County Farmers' Mutual Insurance company of Cortlandt, was today upheld by the appellate court in his conviction for the murder of William H. Morrow, a local farmer, in 1928.

The ruling upheld the decision of the common pleas court which found Romans guilty of the murder. The defense attorneys had sought a new trial, but the appellate court refused to grant it.

The peace pipe, which had been broken by a local health officer, was brought to the medicine man for repair. The medicine man, who had been practicing his craft for many years, failed to fix the pipe, and the health officer was forced to destroy it.

NAVY'S AERIAL GIANT PRIMED TO FLY TODAY

World's Largest Dirigible Prepared for Test If Weather Permits.

ALL DETAILS ARRANGED

By The Associated Press
BULLETIN
AKRON, O., Sept. 23.—The dirigible Akron started out of the dock today at 1:30 p. m. today for its maiden voyage.

AKRON, O., Sept. 23.—The navy ship "Akron" was floated free in her giant dock at 1:30 p. m. today as she was weighed off for probably the last time before taking the air.

Discharging water ballast until equilibrium was reached between her weight and lifting force of 4,000,000 cubic feet of helium, she swung loose of the mobile mooring mast while all disposable loads within her hull were checked.

Balance Tested

The crew freed the ship from the mooring mast and let her float to see whether she was exactly in trim, that is, to see whether the load was distributed properly. When it was found that the distribution from the floor of the dock was exactly the same at the bow and stern, the ship was released.

This operation is not always necessary, but the crew was anxious that everything be in proper condition for the maiden voyage.

Navy officials, however, were still unable to forecast definitely whether the maiden flight could be undertaken, though they believed a light rain would stop any further and upper air conditions would make for the scheduled takeoff of 5 p. m.

A small group of newspapermen and other spectators were inside the dirigible dock watching the crew manipulate the ship.

The balloons around the Akron airport were covered with automobiles as thousands of people from many parts of the country gathered to see one of the most momentous events in American aviation.

Officials on Hand

Among those watching the operations of the crew inside the dock were Secretary of the Navy Charles F. Adams; Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the naval bureau of Aeronautics; and David H. Ingalls, assistant secretary of the navy for aeronautics.

At 2:15 p. m. the crew started the eight motors and let them idle to warm up in readiness for the flight.

The controls for the propellers were put through their tests as the motors idled.

By 3 p. m. the sky had begun clearing gradually and the wind died down to a slight breeze.

By 3:25 everything was in readiness for order of Lieutenant Commander Charles F. Roosevelt to move the ship out of the dock. He was sending a definite weather forecast to officers here that the day would be just what was needed for the flight.

At 3:30 p. m. officers of the ship gave orders to launch the Akron. The ship was then launched and the Akron was in the air.

REED LISTED IN 1932 RACE

Former Missouri Senator Is Named as Active Candidate for Presidency.

THREATENS ROOSEVELT

New Situation Seen as Placing Obstacle in Path of N. Y. Governor.

By The Associated Press
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 23.—Speculation over Democratic Presidential prospects again embraced the name of James A. Reed, former United States senator from Missouri.

Two newspapers, the Kansas City Star and the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, said today Reed would make an active bid for the presidency in 1932 and observers saw in the situation a threat to the political strength of Franklin D. Roosevelt, governor of New York.

Make No Statement

The former senator declined to make a formal statement, but announced he had informed a St. Louis inquirer he would "consider it a compliment" to have the Missouri delegation pledged to him at the next Democratic national convention, as it was in 1928.

Edward J. White, vice president and general counsel of the Missouri Pacific railroad, obtained that information by telephone when he called Reed to explain the proposed organization of Roosevelt-for-President club in St. Louis.

Later White announced that, in view of Reed's mind, plans for forming the Roosevelt club had been abandoned.

"I shall support Senator Reed," White said. "Just as I have always done in all his campaigns. I think the club will be the vehicle of some other Democrat who was named as fighting the nomination of Governor Roosevelt."

The newspapermen, however, were not to be put off. They said they had obtained the information from a reliable source, and that they would continue to report on Reed's activities.

READY TO HELP

The Akron is ready to help in any emergency, it was announced today by the navy.

The Akron is a veritable flying fortress, and is capable of carrying a large number of troops and supplies. It is also capable of carrying out a variety of other duties, such as reconnaissance and transport.

The Akron is a valuable asset to the navy, and is expected to play a major role in the future.

3 NEW BRIDGES WILL BE BUILT ON HARDING

All Local Labor To Be Employed on Construction Work.

Three bridges allotted Marion county in a statewide bridge program for relief of unemployed will be built on Harding highway west of Marion. County Surveyor Cecil E. Lawrence stated today.

The surveyor and his assistants are now preparing surveys for one of the bridges to be built across the Little Scioto two miles west of Marion.

Surveys for the other two have already been completed, having been included in surveys completed this year for the improvement of Harding highway between Big Island and Meeker.

All three of the bridges scheduled for reconstruction are dangerously narrow. Work on the statewide program is expected to start by the latter part of December.

The statewide program calls for the expenditure of $4,107,800, which will be furnished from federal, state and county funds.

Local labor will be used on all bridges, by order of Governor White.

The 40-acre farm owned by William H. Schrote, was transferred from the Richland township rural school district to the Cardington school district in Morrow county at Schrote's request. The Marion county board effected the transfer, which was approved by the Marion county board.

SCOUTS PUBLISH WEEKLY PAPER

The first issue of the weekly newspaper of Troop 16, Boy Scouts of America, made its appearance last night at the meeting of the members at troop headquarters on Congress street. John Higgins, who presided over the meeting, published the paper with the aid of a number of scouts.

Work for second class tests occupied most of the meeting. Ten scouts, one visitor and one committee member were present. H. C.

Murphy, chairman of the committee, closed the meeting with prayer. The troop next meets Tuesday night at the headquarters.

An eminent scientist writes the head chemist in our Research Department:

"Chesterfield Cigarettes are just as pure as the water you drink"

THE WATER YOU DRINK is tested from time to time by expert chemists to make sure that it is free from all injurious substances—that it is pure.

So it is in the manufacture of CHESTERFIELD cigarettes. Expert chemists test all the materials that are used in any way in CHESTERFIELD's manufacture, to make sure that everything that goes into CHESTERFIELD is just right.

THE LEAF TOBACCO IS PURE. Long steel ovens—drying machines of the most modern type—scientifically "dry" and clean and purify the natural tobacco leaves by exact high-temperature treatment.

Then the shreds of cut tobacco, as you see them in your CHESTERFIELD, are again heated, cleaned and purified. From these pure tobaccos the cigarettes are made, and only the purest paper—the best that can be made—is used for CHESTERFIELD.

Cigarettes used to be made in an old-fashioned way, by hand. Now, no hand but yours touches CHESTERFIELD—another purity safeguard.

CHESTERFIELDS are made and packed in clean, sanitary factories where even the air is changed every four and one-half minutes—purity again.

ALL THIS CARE is taken to give you CHESTERFIELDS as nearly perfect as cigarettes can be made. Delivered in a moisture-proof, sealed package, they reach you just as good, just as pure as when they leave the factory. Good... they've got to be good—they're just as pure as the water you drink!

DECISION RESERVED IN DAMAGE SUIT

Farmer Asks $150 After Auto Hits Wagon.

After hearing the testimony of a number of witnesses for both the prosecution and the defense, Municipal Judge W. R. Martin yesterday reserved his decision in the suit for $150 brought by Charles Almsendinger against Mildred Ikemose, for damages to his wagon and injury to a mule, in an automobile accident on the Prospect road on Aug. 1.

In his petition Almsendinger charged that while he was driving a team of mules hitched to a wagon on Aug. 1, the defendant in an automobile crashed into his wagon from the rear, breaking the wagon and injuring one of the mules.

That it was either a case of crashing head-on into an automobile coming from the opposite direction or hitting the wagon, was the defense offered by the attorney for the plaintiff. In her testimony to the court, Miss Ikemose said she saw a wagon ahead of her on the road but was not aware of a second wagon just a few feet ahead and knowing she had plenty of time to get around the one wagon, turned out to go around when she discovered the second wagon. Being too close together to enable her to get in between, she said she had no choice but to hit the Almsendinger wagon.

BY BOB KIRKPATRICK

R. H. Kirkpatrick, Editor, The Star

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

Marion Hinkins has just brought in 365 milk tickets which were purchased from the proceeds of the Sunday recreation ball games. I wish you could see some of the cases where this milk will be truly and literally a life saver. You would feel well repaid for the time and effort you expended in promoting the ball games.

These tickets will be given out on recommendation of our nurses who visit the homes and report on the actual conditions of need. We shall try to keep them to use in case of most dire necessity.

Please accept the thanks of the Red Cross chapter for your thought in raising the money for this purpose and for the effort which was necessary to carry out your project.

Sincerely yours,

The letters referred to in the above letter are those played between the Linden Gophers of Columbus and Maple's Batters of Ballwin, near East Liverpool. Fifty per cent of the net proceeds went to the Red Cross milk fund. Credit for this benefit program should go to Marion Hinkins, Fred "Fido" Whipple, Harry "Boss" Williams and A. I. Hinkins. These four individuals promoted the games and voluntarily turned over the net profits to the Red Cross.

Their contribution is welcomed by the Red Cross in view of the above letter. The four men's thanks. The contribution was voluntary and was not made as a duty to help a good cause. Thank you gentlemen.

I have at hand today another letter, this time from a group of people and quiet (?) individuals residing under the banner of the Downtown Coaches Association. Feeling (they naturally would) that the all-Marion teams recently named were not up to the correct standard the boys have taken it upon themselves to name a team of their own. Here's their letter.

Following you will find the names of the players that the Downtown Coaches have selected for their all-star team and respectfully submit the same as follows:

(Please note how thorough these

(We furthermore challenge the first team picked by the sports editor of The Star to play a game or series of games, proceeds to go to any charitable organization The Star may name.)

GALION ORANGEMEN WILL REMAIN IDLE

Harding, Bucyrus, Shelby Face Toughest Foes; Mansfield Has Warm-Up Game.

BY BOB KIRKPATRICK

Sports Editor, The Star

THREE North Central Ohio scholastic league football teams will undergo the baptism by fire this weekend. Two other teams will swing into action for the second time this season. Of the latter two, one will be fighting to be the first league entry to chalk up a pair of victories in 1931, the other will be battling to crash its way into the win column for the first time. None of the engagements will be league affairs, the teams waiting another week before opening hostilities among themselves.

Couch "Roule" Starn's Ashland-Hittopeters will open festivities first this week, meeting Tiffin Junior Order at Tiffin Friday afternoon. Harding High will invade the lair of the Columbus South High building on the evening of the same date, their nocturnal contest being called for 8 p. m.

These games Saturday.

On Saturday Mansfield's aspiring Tigers will tackle Garrettsville in an expected warm-up encounter at the Mansfield stadium. Bucyrus will take on Beasley High, a Columbus suburb on the home field of the Redmen on the same day while Coach "Chick" Young's Shelby Whippies will entertain Norwalk at Shelby to complete the day's schedule.

Not a one of these contests, except Mansfield's can be classed as a set-up and even that may turn into something decidedly different before the game is completed. No one questions the fact that Harding will have its hands full with Columbus South and it is certain that Shelby will find the going no easier with Norwalk as an opponent. Beasley is always tough and Tiffin Junior Order is not in the habit of turning out a bunch of dubs.

However, Ashland, Bucyrus and Mansfield appear fairly certain to get by but the other two games are one-up with the odds favoring the out-of-league teams.

Bucyrus has already won one game, having downed Crestline 26-0 last Saturday while Ashland dropped one to Akron East 18-0 on the same day. Despite the scores of the two games indicating the opposite, Ashland turned in some football good enough to cause any N. C. O. member a lot of bad moments while Bucyrus did not.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia heavyweight contender, has found his fifth straight victory the most difficult.

ATHLETICS WIN FROM TIGERS TO CHALK UP 105TH 1931 VICTORY

Beats Former Record of Champions; Senators Regain Runner-Up Position.

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer

With one game left today before the year's intercollegiate play in the major leagues ends, the last east-west series in the big circuit has merely proved what the earlier ones indicated. The Eastern Club of the American League and the western team of the National, which have outdone their rivals from the other sections all year, wound up with the most thorough triumph yet.

Playing on the home grounds of the strongest section, the American league's eastern half won 40 games and lost only 16 while the westerners of the National league turned in 38 triumphs to 18 defeats.

Have Won 105.

When they closed their intercollegiate stand with an 8 to 6 victory over Detroit yesterday, the Athletics, once said to be weaker than the pennant winners of the past two seasons, accomplished a feat that no other baseball club ever had done before. It was their 105th victory of the season. They still have five games left and possibility of tying the American league record of 110 victories.

George Earnshaw, who won his 21st game of the year, and Ray Mahaffey, gave the champions some wobbly pitching. Jimmy Foss hit his thirteenth homer of the season with two on in the first inning.

Washington snatched the opportunity offered by an open date in the New York schedule and took undisputed possession of second place in the standing with a 7 to 2 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Boston Sport Checked.

Boston's sport spirit was checked in the last inning of a battle with St. Louis, but the Red Sox managed to hold onto fifth place. Leading 3-0 going into the ninth, Milt Gaston weakened, the Sox committed two errors and Wiley Moore, who was tagged into the breach, could not get the side out until five runs had crossed the plate to give the Browns a 5 to 2 victory.

After wasting a number of opportunities in the regular route, the Pittsburgh Pirates finally beat out the Phillies 3 to 2, in the thirteenth inning of the National league's best battle.

Brooklyn closed the National league season so far as St. Louis is concerned by downing the champion Cardinals 6 to 3, in their final encounter. Paul Derringer's streak of wildness in the seventh with Ostrat's error and O'Doul's timely single gave the Robins three runs to put them ahead and Jack Quinn, relieving Mingo, held the Cards in check to the end.

Other National league clubs had an off day.

City Makes Application To Issue Relief Bonds

Asks Permission for $21,000 Issue; Needs Are Estimated at $56,000 in Report as Demands for Help Increase.

Impressive proof of the increase in poor relief needs this year over last is shown in a report submitted to the state welfare department by City Solicitor Carter Patton and Safety Director T. E. Sonnenstine yesterday as the second step in obtaining permission to issue $21,000 in bonds under the Pringle-Roberts bill for poor relief.

Figures in the report show an increase in the number of families helped during July from 26 last year to 287 this year, with an increase from 120 to 1,460 in the number of dependents. An increase in the expenditures from $185 last year to $2,208.50 for July this year is shown. It also shows an increase in the amount for each family from $6.24 to $14.31.

Come Under Limitation

Before a city can issue bonds for relief work, under the Pringle-Roberts law, permission must be obtained from both the state welfare department and the state tax commission. Before application can be made, however, the city must have retired sufficient bonds to bring the new issue within the 15-mill limitation.

A sufficient amount were retired early this month, City Solicitor Patton said to bring the proposed issue within the 15 mill limitation. Application to issue bonds was filed at once with the two state organizations. The report made yesterday was in reply to a request from the welfare department following receipt of the application.

$56,000 Estimated Need

The needs of the city for relief work from Sept. 1 this year to May 1, next year, are estimated in the report at $56,000. Of this amount, however, $12,000 will be needed to take care of unpaid bills orders for groceries issued by the relief department in anticipation of the receipt of money later. The only means available to raise this amount it was pointed out in the report, is by the issuance of bonds and the one mill levy, the latter is expected to produce about $35,000, less delinquencies.

During March this year—the peak month—the Family Welfare society, the report said, assisted 247 families, a total of 1,210 individuals, with a cost of $12.58 making a total of $15,067.90 spent during the month. The city poor relief department assisted 255 families, 2,635 individuals, at an average cost of $13 a family, spending $3,325.50 during the month.

The report also shows the total spent for charity by the city poor relief and the hospital in 1932 was $17,820; in 1933, $25,000, and thus far this year, $31,284. Other relief agencies spent $21,241 in 1932, $31,095 in 1933 and $27,020 so far in 1933.

Flashes of Life

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK.—The schooner Ellie M. Morley is back from her seventh trip to the Arctic with a story of a smart polar bear. Arthur D. Norcross and two other members of the party landed a bear from a yawl. The bear struck out for the nearest iceberg, leaving the boat. He clambered onto the iceberg and saved the line in two on a sharp edge of ice.

NEW YORK.—Viola Gentry, flying copter, is back at her old job in a Brooklyn restaurant. Use of her arms is impaired by injuries suffered one year ago when her plane crashed in an awkward flight, killing her co-pilot, Jack Ashcraft. She plans to return to aviation when there is a greater demand for women pilots.

LOS ANGELES.—Jackie Cooper, 8, must struggle along on $1,800 a month. That is the amount which his mother, who has been appointed his guardian, is allowed to spend for his care and education. His estate includes a two-year motion picture contract which calls for $1,800 a week for 24 weeks.

BUFFALO.—Although Elsa Van Drogen is 3 feet 4 inches tall and her sister Milda is 7 feet 4 inches, they have found a barrier they cannot hurdle. They went from the United States into Canada with a circus and saw immigration officers refuse to let them return, saying they forfeited their permits when they left the country. They are Germans.

PHILADELPHIA.—Mrs. Charlotte Nash Nixon-Nirdlinger has applied to a court for permission to change her name and that of her two children to Nixon. She says the notoriety which resulted from the killing of her husband of which she was acquitted by a French court is hampering her in obtaining employment under her present name.

FIREARMS CAUSE 16 DEATHS IN OHIO

Reckless Use of Guns Is Deplored by State Official.

By Associated Press Staff Writer
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 21.—It is a sad commentary on the recklessness with which firearms are used that 16 deaths from this cause should have been charged to the accident records of Ohio industry in the first eight months of 1933, says Supt. Thomas P. Kearns of the division of safety and hygiene in the industrial commission in a statement just issued.

"An analysis of these fatalities," Kearns said, "shows that 14 of the 16 cases were homicides. In these seven were killed during holdups, two were shot while attempting to make arrests, two were shot by fellow employees, one watchman was shot by a burglar, one nurse was shot by a hospital patient, one pedestrian was killed by a stray bullet, one worker was shot during strike disorder and one game warden was shot while on patrol duty.

"This record indicates not only a laxity in the caution with which firearms should be handled, but also a lamentable and alarming increase in homicidal tendencies and it reflects a condition over which the safety efforts of employers and workers have little or no control. And while the elimination of such mishaps is a social problem, the industrial accident records are charged with them and they represent marked inroads on the state compensation funds. This is equally true of other deaths not directly due to the failure of either mechanical or human engineering."

Automobile accidents caused a big percentage of the deaths, the report showed.

"In the period referred to, there were 702 fatal claims filed and of this number 206 were due to automobiles, sunstroke, heart failure, animals, athletics and lightning. And this total is greater for these specific causes than the record for the entire year of 1932."

Bright Spots in Business

By United Press
CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Industrial employment and payrolls are increasing in Chicago for the first time since August, 1929, according to the state department of labor.

BUFFALO.—Bethlehem Steel Co. received order for 3,000 tons of 100-pound steel rail from the Lackawanna railroad.

PHILADELPHIA.—Pennsylvania Gas & Electric Co. reported for the year ended Aug. 31 balance after taxes of $28,070, against $22,246 for the preceding year.

KANSAS CITY.—Kansas City Power & Light Co. reported for the year ended Aug. 31 net income of $4,123,566, against $4,000,906 for the preceding year.

Brown, a 35-year-old Negro, has est cottage near here for over 25

Brown, a Civil war veteran, is all sections of the country who seek out his cottage, Brown is al-

Brown paid the way for his later stewardship with the Presi-

Bloomington during the war.
Charles E. Boyer, a banker, jokingly told Brown a new suit that he couldn't shake hands with the president. When Lincoln's coach drew abreast, Brown ran up to it and extended his hand, which the President clasped cordially.

OLDSMOBILE'S
SYNCHRO-MESH TRANSMISSION
BRINGS NEW EASE and PLEASURE TO DRIVING*

Perhaps the finest tribute accorded Oldsmobile is that of the many women who have driven the car. They have commended its brilliant performance. They have approved its distinctive style. But even above these factors, they have expressed enthusiasm for Oldsmobile's remarkable ease of control
+ + And it is a natural enthusiasm. Oldsmobile's Synchro-Mesh transmission permits rapid shifting through all gears . . . from low into second, from second to high, and from high back to second—with astonishing ease and in absolute silence. Gear clashing is eliminated—yet the factor of safety is constant, for the car is in gear and under control at all times. This makes driving in traffic easier and gives extra protection on steep grades + + Contributing still further to the desirability of this transmission is Oldsmobile's Quiet Second Gear . . . assuring smooth, swift acceleration which rivals high gear performance in quietness + + Until you actually drive Oldsmobile, and experience for yourself the unique advantages of this transmission, you can't appreciate how much it really adds to the ease and pleasure of driving. And in no other car so moderately priced can you enjoy the same advantages . . . for Oldsmobile is the lowest priced car equipped with the Synchro-Mesh transmission.

Arthur Brisbane's Today

ONE IMPORTANT question is, "What effect will Britain's action have on silver and its value?"

JAPAN ADMIRERS the League of Nations, theoretically, but in matters affecting Japan that country carries as little about advice or direction from the league as does Mussolini himself.

Organized Labor Voices Disapproval; Some See Cuts as Aid to Business.

By The Associated Press NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—An announcement of impending wage cuts in steel, motor, rubber and copper industries was subject today to a variety of interpretation.

Organized labor proclaimed its resistance. Some financial writers attributed to unnamed business leaders the belief that the step would hasten a revival of business.

Formal statements of corporations concerned merely stressed unsatisfactory present conditions or new standards of value.

United States Steel took the initiative and announced a 10 per cent cut affecting 220,000 employees.

Oct. 1 Bethlehem Steel followed suit. It will reduce wages 10 per cent Oct. 1 for 50,000 employees.

Youngstown Sheet & Tube ordered a corresponding cut.

The General Motors Corporation announced a 10 to 20 per cent reduction for 25,000 salaried employees. Some 150,000 employed on an hourly wage basis will not be affected.

The United States Rubber company announced a five-day working schedule, starting Oct. 1. This will mean a reduction of about 9 per cent in wages to 25,000 employees.

The American Smelting & Refining company and the Utah Copper company announced 10 per cent wage reductions, effective Oct. 1.

A forecast of resistance came from Matthew Wolf, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, after the announcement by United States Steel.

Washington advisers represented President Hoover and his advisers as hopeful that the action of U. S. Steel would have no sweeping reflex among the employees of big business generally.

Months ago, Mr. Hoover sought to pledge the industrial captains against a lowering of wages.

By The Associated Press PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23.—The Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation announced today that wages in its plant would be reduced approximately 10 per cent, effective Oct. 1. It is one of the largest independent steel concerns in the country and employs about 20,000 men.

Gloom Turns to Joy as Term in Pen Commuted

By The Associated Press MENARD, Ill., Sept. 23.—Life for Jack Corder had a gloomy outlook yesterday as he sat at his desk, performing his regular duties as a telegraph operator in the Illinois state penitentiary.

The prison physician had told him he was suffering from tuberculosis, and he still had several years to serve for the killing nine years ago of a woman in Vermilion county.

As he pondered his ultimate fate the sounder of his telegraph instrument began to send out the dots and dashes. Corder, following his usual routine, slipped a sheet of message paper in his typewriter and began:

"Warden, James A. White, Governor Louis L. Edmonson today commuted to expire at once the sentence of John P. Corder, No. 8,790."

Today the wide open spaces of the outside world were calling to Corder to return in quest of the health he enjoyed when he was a newspaper telegrapher; a vacation he followed before becoming a number in the southern Illinois state penitentiary.

Southwestern State Teachers' college, Springfield, Mo., started football practice this fall with a letter from him.

Following with the biggest cheer in history, reported for football at Chicago.

But whether in Chicago or in the state penitentiary, Corder is now a free man.

COUNT DOESN'T LIKE AIR DUEL IDEA

By International News Service LONDON—Since all things have taken the route program has pointed out, there was no legitimate reason why the ancient sport of duelling should not follow the inevitable trend. But nobody happened to think what a beautiful "field of honor" was now provided in the upper regions until a British labor chose a machine gun-armed airplane as his weapon against an Austrian Count.

In the old and thoroughly limited days, a man challenged to a duel had small choice of tools with which to kill or thoroughly disable his opponent. Pistols or rapier were the most popular instruments with which to acquire the required amount of "satisfaction." But in the midst of this inventive era, the means for staging really dramatic duels have been so amplified, that it is a pity there isn't more of the colorful—with blood—affairs to witness.

Twenty of Thrills

We can even picture clever promoters charging a fee to have thrills watch two offended gentlemen battle for their honor with charging automobiles, rattling machine guns, poisonous gas or any other destructive innovation of modernity.

Instead of 11 men trying to break each other's necks, as in foot-ball, perhaps enough interest could be drummed up in duelling to satisfy the thrill-hungry mob with two-man combats.

But, turning from what would be sublime to some equally ridiculous, and reverting to the comic-serious case of the British actor, who was formerly a Royal Air force officer, and the Austrian count who challenged him to mortal combat, we find the Englishman showing signs of ingenuity in this duelling business.

Given the choice of weapons, as the "one" challenged, Captain Charles L. Lincoln, of England, chose an encounter with air-planes, equipped with machine guns, when answering Count Anton Cernin's demand for "satisfaction."

Knows Speedy Retreat

This touch of previously unheard of modernism on the field of honor, and an aerial "field" at that, so flabbergasted the count that he beat a hasty retreat from England where he had hurried to slap Capt. Lincoln's face, quite figuratively, with his noble glove.

The old cry of the French police, "Cherchez la femme," applies in this case, as it does in most duels. Find the woman and one finds the cause of a whole lot of things. Yes, sir, even proposed bouts on the duelling grounds of 1935.

The fracas between Captain Lincoln and Count Cernin started when the Austrian nobleman in alleged to have started with unbearable rudeness at the striking posturage of Hilde Zimmerman, German beauty, and fiancée of the Britisher, in a Cleveland hotel. The count is also said to have admitted addressing a note to Captain Lincoln.

Apology Demanded

Enraged, the English ex-flier went to Cernin's office the next day to demand an apology. Lincoln later explained what happened in these words:

"I knocked him down twice, but he got up and ran to the door, shouting he would fetch a policeman. I followed him and gave him my card. He then brought action against me."

The "action" was having the Britisher a police judge on a charge of assault, but the judge vindicated the former Royal Air Force officer when he said, "The British captain was compelled to act according to the unwritten laws of his country. If he had not done so, he would have been considered a coward and an honorless individual."

Thoroughly dissatisfied at every turn of events, Count Cernin followed Capt. Lincoln and his beautiful fiancée to England. Through the columns of a London newspaper, the offended nobleman challenged Lincoln to a duel. The latter's curt reply that he preferred guns effectively squashed what airplanes equipped with machine guns enthusiastically the count had previously entertained for an encounter.

Ab, progress has scored again

Houston speedboat pilots made virtually a clean sweep of events on a recent race program at Galveston, Tex.

By International News Service BERKELEY, Calif.—There are American heroes and more American heroes, but Abraham Lincoln still remains the idol of the American boy—and girl.

At least that is how it stands in a survey made by L. A. Williams, professor of education at the University of California, who was taken as a guide.

In his survey, Lincoln was mentioned 2,143 times out of a possible 2,218; George Washington ranked second with 2,133.

Professor Williams made the survey to determine the person-consciousness of pupils in junior and senior high schools. The professor noted a marked tendency to emphasize political and military leadership and a tendency to neglect leadership in the fine arts.

Few Women Named

Only a few women were named, few Biblical characters, or classical names and movie actors.

Others named in order after Lincoln and Washington were Ben Hur, Edison, Columbus, Roosevelt, Wilson, Ford, Pershing, Franklin, Coolidge, Grant, Longfellow and Napoleon.

Women ranked well down the list of preferences. Joan of Arc led with 137 votes, Helen Keller was second with 114. Others named in order were Helen Williams Moody, Daisy Ross, Florence Nightingale, Clara Barton, Susan B. Anthony, and Gail-Cordell.

Among Biblical characters, Jesus was mentioned 59 times, Moses 33, and David 26. Solomon, Paul, and Abraham were the only others mentioned by more than five.

Of the classical characters Julius Caesar was far in the lead, named 674 times. Aristotle and Socrates were mentioned frequently.

ARE YOU WEAK, NERVOUS OR RUN DOWN?

Do you have that tired run-down feeling? Have you lost your appetite? Do you feel weak and nervous? Then you have probably neglected your Bowels, Kidneys and Stomach. Weak, run-down men and women can easily regain their former vigor and snap by taking Nature's Greatest Medicine—TON-GE.

TON-GE has the body of potassium which causes so many ills and even death. These body poisons are quickly eliminated through the Bowels, Lungs and Kidneys by the use of TON-GE. Just a few bottles of TON-GE will make you feel fit, just as nature intended you to feel.

There is no guess work in the making of TON-GE. It is compounded by a registered druggist from the prescription of a well known doctor. Give TON-GE a fair trial—say just 14 days, and you will be pleasantly surprised.

TON-GE is sold and recommended in MARION by STUMP & RAMS DRUG STORE—ADV.

SAM

CHAPTER 10
Fixed Ties and Eels

ON Thursday night of the first week of April the Wayne Hotel gave a party.

It was a cold, blustery night. The calendar called for a moon and a moon there was, but it was a pale, chill moon riding high in a tumultuous sea of scurrying clouds. The wind blew fiercely across the Holcomb's deserted gardens and hurled itself upon the brightly lighted windows of the house.

In the Holcomb's cleared living room there was warmth and light. The floor was crowded with dancing couples. A fire was burning brightly in the large fireplace, and near it stood Peak about.

He was engaged in the profitable pastime of observing Sam Sheettill without being observed. Sam was dancing with Ted Markham, a tall, rapid individual.

Sam's dress was blue; a vivid kind of blue. Peak could not name the shade. He only knew that its vividness enhanced rather than dimmed the whiteness of her shoulders, the blackness of her hair. He had seen all at once that Sam was beautiful.

The sudden thought shook him from his composure. If Sam was beautiful, what was she doing dancing with that oaf, Markham? The thing was preposterous. It must be stopped. Peak moved across the crowded room.

All at once she was in his arms, and was looking up at him, smiling. He tried to speak but the words tangled themselves hopelessly before they reached his lips.

Sam had not noticed his difficulty. "Let's get out of here for a minute," she said. "I want a breath of air."

He found himself being led across the polished floor, and down a long hall to the garden door. In a moment the door was closed behind them and the Wayne Holcomb's party had vanished completely in a tremendous gust of wind.

The moon had been blotted out by a heavy bank of cloud and as a result the darkness seemed more profound than that of an ordinary night.

The wind was very strong. It rushed at Peak and buffeted him. It tore at his hair and at his half closed eyelids.

Sam looked up at him, laughed, and reached out her hand. Before he was fully aware of what was happening he found himself running by her side, her hand in his arm, across the grass.

The spring turf was treacherous; soft and squishy under foot in places and hard as flint in others. In the end, however, the bulk of the summer house loomed darkly. With his free hand Peak wrenched at the glass door. In another instant they were across the threshold and there was peace.

Sam moved across to the black square that marked the window looking over the valley. Peak followed, and as he reached her side the clouds vanished from the face of the moon and there was light.

The abruptness of the thing made them blink. The whole of the little valley was in view, a panorama in black and white. It was an orderly, neatly arranged, sophisticated little valley, but it was no less pleasing because of that.

"Beautiful," Sam murmured the word, watching. "It's beautiful, Peak." she repeated swiftly, "and I'm happy!"

Peak looked at her and tried to speak. His half turned away, and then, suddenly, something stronger than himself took possession. A swift, savage sweep of his arm brought Sam close to him. He was holding her lightly in a rough embrace. He was kissing her mouth.

That kiss was in no way the tentative, hesitant caress of a doubtful lover. It was fierce, it was compelling, elemental. It marked the breaking of a dam against which the rising waters had been beating for weeks and months.

It was only when Sam at last turned her face away that the roaring in Peak's brain gradually began toebb.

He held her all the more tightly. "Sam!" he whispered. "Sam!"

"Don't go away. Kiss me again!"

"No, no!" Sam managed to slip free, taking two or three quick steps backward until she was leaning against the wall, breathing hard. He followed her grimly, but she held him at arm's length.

"No! Please don't!" She was pleading. "Peak! Stop! Please be sensible."

With the sound of her voice all the hot madness slipped away, leaving him drained for the moment of all emotion. He dropped his hands and stepped back.

"I'm sorry, Sam," he said quickly. "I don't know what happened."

"It's all right," she answered in uncertain little laugh. "I don't know what happened, either."

"I missed you," he drew her to him daily. "I didn't know how to let I did. You know me, Sam, do you realize that? You asked me to go so much as I loved you."

"I know,"

"I wonder why you did." She stamped a glance of eyes down at his feet. "I suppose I was a silly, silly woman."

"You were a woman," he said. "A woman who loved me."

"Yes, yes," she said. "But I'm afraid I'm superficial and selfish. That I want money for my own sake. It's just that I'm sick tired of being a charity patient."

Peak shook his head wearily. "don't know what you're talking about."

"Don't you?" she asked with sudden heat. "Well, I can tell you."
